

Relationship between County and Local Comprehensive Plans

While all local comprehensive plans-cities, villages, and towns-were "incorporated" into the Washington County plan document to the extent practicable, it is recognized that Washington County may choose to disagree with one or more proposals included in a city, village, or town plan, with such disagreements relating to, for example, State mandated shoreland zoning requirements.

Every effort was made to discuss and resolve issues between Washington County and the cities, villages, and towns in the County. Where conflicts could not be resolved, they were documented in the intergovernmental cooperation element of the County plan report. Washington County explicitly recognizes that cities, villages, and towns may choose to disagree with a position that the County may take. The County respects the rights of cities, villages, and the Town of Farmington to adopt and amend a plan that may differs from the County plan. Adoption and amendments to the Town of Farmington Plan will not require County approval. If the Town of Farmington desires Washington County's Land Use Plan map to match the Town Land Use Plan amendment, the Town of Farmington must request Washington County to amend their Comprehensive Plan. This process is outlined in Chapter XI of this Plan.
